Read the following passage and then choose the best answer:

Living in a city has both advantages and disadvantages. Many young people enjoy city life because it offers exciting opportunities. There are numerous schools, libraries, and training centers that help students improve their knowledge. In addition, cities provide a variety of entertainment such as cinemas, shopping malls, and sports clubs. These places make life more colorful and interesting.

However, city life is not always perfect. One of the biggest problems is traffic. During rush hours, the streets are often crowded with cars and motorbikes, leading to traffic jams and noise pollution. Another serious issue is the quality of air. With too many vehicles and factories, the air in big cities is sometimes dirty and unhealthy.

Despite these problems, many people still choose to live in cities because of better job opportunities and modern services. For them, the advantages of city life are greater than the disadvantages, especially for young people who want to study and develop their careers.
