READING (2,5 marks)

Part 1: Read the following passage carefully and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best option to fit each numbered blank from 21 to 25.

Recognized as a World Heritage Site in Vietnam, Ha Long Bay attracts thousands of visitors every year, who come to enjoy its magnificent natural landscape. However, the bay is also facing a number of threats (21) _____ may lead to serious damage to the site. Wildlife in Ha Long Bay is being destroyed by overfishing as this is the only job to support most of the inhabitants here. As a result, rare sea creatures may become extinct soon.

(22) _____ problem is deforestation of mangrove forests. The mangroves, known as the plants native to Ha Long Bay, provide protection during storms, preserve the shoreline, and act as a natural filter that keeps the sea environment clean and healthy. Numerous wildlife species including plants and fish also depend on mangroves.

What is more, some markets in Ha Long Bay sell unusual relics and natural objects, such as coral pieces, seashells, or unique stones, probably illegally removed from the (23) _____ areas. Many of these items, converted into rings, key chains, and other souvenirs, are purchased by unsuspecting tourists. Buying these items creates a black market leading (24) _____ further destruction of Ha Long Bay.

As eco-tourists, we can help to protect Ha Long Bay for future generations in several ways. For example, by sailing or fishing with the fishermen, we can share the benefits of tourism with the local community. This will help them to increase their income and reduce excessive fishing. We can also help local people to learn about the significance of the mangrove forests and help them to replant the mangroves. We should also avoid purchasing unusual souvenirs. As responsible tourists, we can (25) _____ suspected traders or vendors by refusing to buy their illegal goods.

TAPESCRIPT FOR LISTENING:LISTENING TEST – ENGLISH 11:*Part 1:

Lan: Good morning.

Receptionist: Good morning. Welcome to ABC Vocational School. How can I help you?

Lan: I watched a TV programme about your school last week. I'd like to ask for information about your courses.

Receptionist: Sure. What's your name, please?

Lan: I'm Nguyen Thanh Lan.

Receptionist: OK, Mai. We offer a wide range of courses including tour guide training, hotel and restaurant management, and cooking. Are you interested in a specific trade?

Lan: Yes, I'd like to know more about your cooking courses. How long does it take to complete a cooking course?

Receptionist: Well, it depends. We have short cooking courses for all ages and abilities. They are usually two to three months, and mainly for people who want to learn about food preparation and have fun in the kitchen. We also have professional cooking courses, which take two years to complete, for those who want to train to be restaurant cooks.

Lan: Do you offer any apprenticeships?

Receptionist: Yes, once you join a course, you'll have the opportunity to work as an apprentice in a real restaurant and learn from the best chefs.

Lan: That's amazing!

Receptionist: Would you like to fill in the application form?

Lan: Oh, I'm only in grade 11. I haven't discussed my plans with my parents either.

Receptionist: OK, no problem. Please take a copy of our school brochure. It has detailed information about all the courses.

Lan: Thank you so much. Goodbye.

Receptionist: Bye, Lan. Good luck.

Part 2:

Located 30 kilometres south of My Khe beach, in Quang Nam province, Hoi An ancient town is an Eastern oriental classic captivation. With the strategic location on the banks of the great river, with one seaside border (East), it used to be one of the major trading centres in Southeast Asia during the 16th century due to the early western trader occupying period.

Because Hoi An is an old Town, its places of interest have lots of historically classical meanings and images. Hoi An symbol, the most popular remnant is the Japanese Covered Bridge (Chua Cau or Lai Vien Kieu), on the west end of Tran Phu Street. The bridge was constructed in the early 1600s the Japanese community. Today, Hoi An is well known as a shopping paradise that attracts tourists towards its wonderful souvenirs, handicrafts, antique pieces, silk materials and art paintings, and so on.

If you arrive at Hoi An in the afternoon, we recommend you try walking around for the town night. There may be many interesting things waiting for you here, lanterns, clothes shops, Hoi An calligraphy, and night foods. Especially, try to visit Hoi An on the night of the full moon – the town is lit up with thousands of lanterns, locals dress up in traditional costumes, and music and dance shows are performed throughout the old town.
