What is like, walking in a place that looks like Jurassic Park? That's how my friend Lily and I felt when the boat reached the small port on the island of Aogashima last May.

Aogashima is a tiny tropical island near Japan, with about 200 people living there. The people live only in a small part of the island, as the rest is actually a giant volcano.

When we arrived, at the only hotel in town, we found the relaxing spa, a special swimming pool which uses the hot volcanic water. We spent the afternoon in the lovely hot water.

The next morning, we began to climb the volcano. As we walked through the forest, I expected a dinosaur to appear from behind the huge trees. When we reached the top of the volcano, we were thrilled to see that there was another volcano inside the first one! We went down into the volcano. Some large birds flew over us. They were albatrosses - big birds that live at sea. We sat in the shade of the trees and had a picnic. When it got dark, we camped on top of the little volcano and watched the stars. We were tired, but relaxed, under the magnificent night sky. The huge Milky Way was above us and we felt very small.

The next morning we boarded the boat and set off on our long journey back to Tokyo. Visiting Aogashima was an unforgettable experience.

What is Sports Tourism?

Sports tourism is travelling from one region, country, state, etc. to engage or participate in a sports-related activity. Sports tourism combines the passion for sports with the desire to experience new experiences or destinations.

While sports tourism has not always been extremely popular, it is definitely on the rise. A recent report estimates the value of the global sports tourism market was $587.87 billion in 2022. The industry is expected to grow at a rate of 17.5% through 2030. The popularity of events like the Olympic Games, the NBA, and the FIFA World Cup have contributed to this growth. While these events have economic short-term benefits for an area, they can be a catalyst for longer-term tourism development opportunities.

In 2004, the World Tourism Organisation (WTO) and the International Olympic Committee (IOC) issued a joint statement which illustrates the strong dynamic between sports and tourism, "Tourism and sports are interrelated and complementary. Sport- as a professional, amateur or leisure activity - involves a considerable amount of travelling to play and compete in different destinations and countries. Major sporting events, such as the Olympic Games, football and rugby championships and auto racing have become powerful tourism attractions in themselves - making a very positive contribution to the tourism image of the host destination".

Hi Mum and Dad,

I hope this email finds you well. It's three weeks since I went to the US. I want to share some exciting news with you - I recently went on a trip to the Grand Canyon!

It was an absolutely incredible experience. The Grand Canyon is unlike anything I've ever seen before. The vastness and beauty of the canyon left me speechless. I hiked along the rim and marvelled at the breathtaking views. The colours and rock formations were truly impressive.

I also had the opportunity to take a helicopter ride over the canyon. It was a bit scary at first, but the panoramic views from above were absolutely stunning. I felt like I was flying among the eagles!

During my visit, I met some friendly fellow travellers who shared interesting stories and insights about the canyon. It was a great way to connect with people from different parts of the world.

I wish you both could have been there with me to experience this natural wonder. I took many photos, and I can't wait to show them to you when I return.

I hope you're doing well and I can't wait to hear from you. Take care!

Love,

Tony

If you want to learn English more quickly, lots of reading is important. When you read in English, you can improve your vocabulary, grammar, and writing at the same time.

When you read, try to figure out the meaning of a new word from the words around it. Even if you are not always correct, it is good to practise thinking about what a new word might mean. You may need to learn the meaning of a word or phrase. The more words you understand, the better you will be able to read. A dictionary - hard copy or online version - can help you find the meanings of words which are new to you. You should keep a list of new words, their definitions, and a sentence for each word which shows how to properly use it. You can keep this vocabulary list in a notebook you always have with you. This helps you to revise what you have learnt wherever you are.

Solar energy is becoming more popular as a source of power. It is a clean and renewable energy source, meaning it will never run out. Many people install solar panels on their rooftops to generate electricity, which helps them save money and protect the environment.

One of the biggest advantages of solar energy is that it does not cause pollution. Unlike fossil fuels, solar power does not release harmful gases into the air. However, there are some disadvantages. The initial cost of installing solar panels is high, and they depend on weather conditions. On cloudy days, solar panels produce less electricity.

Despite these challenges, solar energy is still a great option for a sustainable future. If more people use solar power, we can reduce our dependence on fossil fuels and create a cleaner environment.

Question 24. What is the main idea of the passage?

A. The cost of installing solar panels

B. The benefits and drawbacks of solar energy

C. How to use electricity

D. Different types of pollution

Question 25. Why is solar energy considered renewable?

A. It is expensive B. It will never run out

C. It does not produce electricity D. It is harmful to the environment

Question 26. What is a disadvantage of solar energy?

C. It is the main source of energy D. It causes air pollution

Question 27. The word "depend" in the passage is closest in meaning to:

A.increase B. ignore C. rely on D. create

Question 28. What is one benefit of using solar energy?

A. It helps reduce electricity bills B. It increases air pollution

C. It makes the weather colder D. It only works at night

Question 29. Why do some people hesitate to install solar panels?

A. They are expensive to install B. They do not work at all

C. They cause pollution D. They produce too much electricity

Question 30. What does the word 'It' in the first paragraph refer to?

A. Energy source B. Source of power

Do you ever think about what schools will be like in the future? Many people think that students will study most regular classes such as maths, science and history online. Students will probably be able to these subjects anywhere using a computer. What will happen if students have problem with a subject? They might connect with a teacher through live videoconferencing. Expert teachers from learning centres will give students help wherever they live.

Students will still take classes in a school, too. Schools will become places for learning social skills. Teachers will guide students in learning how to work together in getting along with each other. They will help students with group projects both in and out of the classroom.

Volunteer work and working at local businesses will teach students important life skills about the world they live in. This will help students become an important part of their communities. Some experts say it will take five years for changes to begin in schools. Some say it will take longer. Most people agree, though, that computers will change education the way TVs and telephones changed life for people all over the world years before.

Question 25. What is the main idea of the passage?

UNESCO World Heritage Site in Hue

The Complex of Hue Monuments is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is located in the city of Hue in central Vietnam. Hue was founded as the Viet Nam capital city by Gia Long, the first king of the Nguyen Dynasty in 1802. It held this position for thirteen Nguyen kings until 1945.

The massive complex features hundreds of monuments and ruins, such as the Forbidden Purple City, once the residence of the royal family and badly damaged during the Vietnam War, the Imperial City, royal tombs, the flag tower, pagodas, temples, a library and museum.

Hue, located on the banks of the Huong River, (also known as the Perfume River) is about a hundred kilometres north of Da Nang. Among the most impressive monuments in this former grand imperial capital are the Ngo Mon Gate of the Imperial City which once was exclusively used by the royal family and their servants and soldiers, the tomb of Emperor Minh Mang as well as the tomb of Emperor Tu Duc. In fact, many of the monuments surrounding the royal buildings were constructed in the early 19th century and were modeled after Beijing's Forbidden City. The wall that surrounds the citadel is six metres high and two and a half kilometres long.

The historical complex is known not only for its rich architecture but also for its beautiful landscape setting. Overall, the site is quite spectacular. Avoid Hue between October and December as it gets most of its rain from the northeast monsoon during that period. This small city is also famous for its Imperial-style cuisine.

Sports tourism is travelling from one region, country, state, etc. to engage or participate in a sports-related activity. Sports tourism combines the passion for sports with the desire to experience new experiences or destinations.

While sports tourism has not always been extremely popular, it is definitely on the rise. A recent report estimates the value of the global sports tourism market was $587.87 billion in 2022. The industry is expected to grow at a rate of 17.5% through 2030. The popularity of events like the Olympic Games, the NBA, and the FIFA World Cup have contributed to this growth. While these events have economic short-term benefits for an area, they can be a catalyst for longer-term tourism development opportunities.

In 2004, the World Tourism Organization (WTO) and the International Olympic Committee (IOC) issued a joint statement that illustrates the strong dynamic between sports and tourism, "Tourism and sports are interrelated and complementary. Sport - as a professional, amateur or leisure activity - involves a considerable amount of travelling to play and compete in different destinations and countries. Major sporting events, such as the Olympic Games, football and rugby championships and auto racing have become powerful tourism attractions in themselves - making a very positive contribution to the tourism image of the host destination".

II. Read the following passage and circle the letter A, B, C, or D to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions. (1.5 points)

Did you ever wonder why it is so difficult for adults to start to learn English or a foreign language? Every year, millions of grown-ups around the world spend a handsome amount of money to learn English but not many of them succeed in becoming fluent English speakers. This is because it is not easy to pick up a new language after a certain age.

However, little children learn foreign languages without much difficulty. This is because they have a special ability that helps them learn languages fast. This ability weakens when people grow older. Think of the little time children need to learn their native language. So, if you have the desire to learn English or any other foreign language, you should begin as soon as possible. Remember that the longer you wait, the harder it will become.

Learning English can be a challenging but rewarding experience. It opens doors to new opportunities, cultures, and ideas. Whether you're a student, a professional, or simply someone who wants to expand their horizons, English proficiency can be a valuable asset.

There are many ways to learn English, from traditional classroom settings to online courses and language exchange programs. The key is to find a method that suits your learning style and preferences. Some people prefer structured lessons and grammar exercises, while others learn best through immersion and conversation.

One of the most effective ways to improve your English is to practice regularly. This means speaking, listening, reading, and writing as much as possible. Don't be afraid to make mistakes – they're a natural part of the learning process. Instead, focus on learning from your errors and gradually building your confidence.

In addition to formal study, there are many informal ways to enhance your English skills. Watching English-language movies and TV shows, listening to English music, and reading English books and articles can all help you improve your vocabulary, grammar, and pronunciation.

Learning English is a journey that requires patience, dedication, and perseverance. But with consistent effort and the right approach, you can achieve your goals and unlock the many benefits that come with English proficiency.
