My favorite movie is "Sherlock Holmes". This is a movie I watched recently in cinema. It was a very thrilling journey through time. The film was based on a novel, with the same name. Except the great story, the actors were great. They really make you think it is happening. The main character wasn't like the one in novel, it was the complete opposite, his assistant Dr. Watson. Who is very fat in the novel, isn't showed like that. He is Sherlock's conscience, very handsome, younger man, just like Holmes. In the film, he is trying to prove that magic doesn't exist and that all that happened wasn't because of a bad magician, and he did it. The whole movie is exciting and I didn't want it to end. I really liked the movie and I could watch again and again... I think that's what makes a great movie, when it's every time thrilling as the first time you saw it.

Question 31. What was the film based on?
A. It was based on a novel.
B. It was based on a magazine.
C. It was based on a book.
D. It was based on a newspaper.

Question 32. Is the character in the film similar or different from the character in the novel?

A. It is quite similar. B. It is different.
C. It is a bit different. D. It is similar.

Question 33. _____ are mentioned as two main characters in the passage.
A. Sherlock Holmes and Watson B. Sherlock Holmes and writer
C. Sherlock Holmes and reader D. Sherlock Holmes and director

Question 34. What does the sentence "I didn't want it to end" in the passage mean?
A. The writer is bored with this film.
B. The writer is interested in this film.
C. The writer wants the film to be longer.
D. The writer has long free time to watch this film.

Who are the best drivers? Which drivers are the safest on the roads? According to a recent survey, young and inexperienced drivers are the most likely to have an accident. Older drivers are more careful. Young men have the worst accident records of all. They often choose faster cars with bigger engines. One of the most interesting facts in the survey is that passengers have an effect on the driver. When young male drivers have their friends in the car, their driving becomes worse. When their wife or girlfriend is in the car, however, their driving is better. But this is not true for women. Their driving is more dangerous when their husband or boyfriend is in the car. However, if their small children are riding in the car, they drive more slowly and safely.
